Benefits of learning

By returning to education you will:

- Have more opportunities to learn new skills
- Adapt better to new technology
- Be more confident in yourself
- Find it easier to do everyday things like maths
- Be able to get a formal qualification if you want
- Get your current skills recognised (for example, if you are good at one subject you can do an assessment online and get a qualification for what you know)

Did you know?

There are over 50,000 adults improving their reading, writing and maths skills in local ETB Adult Education Centres around the country. So why not give yourself the best chance and start learning today.

There are lots of options

You can:

- Study online by yourself on www.writeon.ie
- Work with a tutor over the phone on our Distance Learning Service
- Learn in your local ETB Adult Education Centre

Or you can do a combination of these to suit your lifestyle.

“I always wanted to improve my writing and maths skills but I didn’t have time to go back to a night class. NALA’s Distance Learning Service allowed me to improve my basic skills and learn new ones, like computers. I can’t believe how much I’ve learned and it’s given me the confidence to work towards getting a formal qualification.”

What to do next?

Join thousands of people in Ireland today improving their skills and getting a national qualification.
