National Adult Literacy Agency (NALA) Annual General Meeting 2022

Dear Member,

I hope that you are keeping well. I am delighted to have this opportunity to write to you to invite you to our 2022 Annual General Meeting (AGM). It is taking place online on Saturday 30 April 2022 at 11am and we hope you can join us.

2021 was another rollercoaster year for us all, but with your support, we achieved a long-held ambition to get a new 10-year adult literacy, numeracy and digital literacy strategy for Ireland. Now that we enter 2022, we need your help to make sure it gets implemented. Our AGM will be an ideal opportunity for you to outline and discuss with other members what you want NALA to concentrate on in 2022 and beyond.

Would you like to join our Board?

This year we have a number of vacancies on our Board and we are looking for new members to join us as Directors and Officers. The Board provides essential leadership to NALA and ensures that our vision, mission and values are promoted, advanced and achieved. So, if you believe 'literacy is a human right' and want to see it realised, we would welcome your insights and encourage you to nominate or elect new Directors and Officers for the Board of NALA. But hurry, the deadline for nominations is 25 March 2022.

Patron: Michael D Higgins, President of Ireland

Government of Ireland

Everything you need to know about our AGM, how to register and how to nominate new Directors and Officers to our Board is on our website www.nala.ie. As we get closer to the AGM we will share other important documents including our 2021 Annual Report and financial statements with you.

What to do next

1. Make sure your membership is up to date by 25 March 2022
2. Nominate new members to the NALA Board by 25 March 2022
3. Register for the NALA AGM by 22 April 2022
